Try New Idea: Cheese-Olive Pie

For a delicious late evening snack, instead of the usual sweets, serve up "Ripe Olive and Swiss Cheese Pie." Meaty ripe olive and smoky crisp bacon fleck the custard-like Swiss cheese filling. Assemble the ingredients in advance, but fill the shell and bake this enticing pie at the last minute so you can serve it in all its golden beauty still warm from the oven. Raw vegetable relishes are good accompaniments, and you might follow up with mixed nuts and Tokay grapes.

Cut 6 slices bacon into 1-inch pieces and briol or pan-fry until crisp; drain well. Drain and slice 1 cup pitted ripe olives. Cover unbaked 9-inch pastry shell with overlapping layers of bacon, olives and ½ pound shredded or thinly sliced Swiss cheese. Beat together 4 eggs, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 cups light cream and 1 tablespoon melted butter. Pour over bacon, olives and cheese. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) for 35 to 40 minutes, until the custard is set and golden brown on top. Serve warm.

SCOTTISH DANCERS

Music and dances, traditional of every region of their native land, will be seen in the production of Caledonia!, to be staged by the celebrated Singers and Dancers of Scotland, Sunday, Dec. 4 at the Friday Morning Club Playhouse, 940 S. Figueroa, under the auspices of the Community Civic Music Association. Ticket available at So. Calif. Music Co. 737 S. Hill and at all Mutual Agencies.

Pudding Cake Made With Fruit Cocktail

Next time you bake an oven dinner for the family, slip in this quick and easy fruit-flecked pudding cake. A light sponge cake batter holds colorful canned fruit cocktail throughout with flaked coconut on top toasted to delightful crunchiness. "Fruit Cocktail Pudding Cake" can be served warm or cold with a fluff of whipped cream and garnished with fruit cocktail.

Beat 2 eggs with 1 teaspoon vanilla until light and fluffy. Gradually add, 1 cup sugar beating until thick and lemon-colored. Measure 2/3 cup sifted all purpose flour; re-sift flour with 1/4 teaspoon salt and 2 teaspoons baking powder. Stir into egg mixture. Thoroughly drain 1 (1 lb. 14 oz.) can fruit cocktail; measure out 1 1/4 cups fruit and fold into batter, reserving remaining fruit for garnish. Turn into buttered 9-inch square baking pan. Sprinkle 1 cup flaked coconut over top. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes, until cake tests done.

Cut in squares and serve warm or cold, topped with ½ pint (1 cup) heavy cream, whipped and sweetened to taste, and reserved fruit cocktail. Makes 8 servings.

Auditions Slated For 'Oklahoma'

First auditions for singing parts in the El Camino College production of the musical comedy "Oklahoma" will be held November 28 at 8 p.m.

Any interested person living within the college district may try out for parts in the production if he has registered at the college for not less than two units of study in subjects not directly connected with the show.

Those auditioning for singing parts should be prepared to sing at least one number of the role for which they are trying.

Cherry Surprise Brings Approval

This bright and flavorsome cherry dessert with its bounty of bounce and good eating is sure to bring smiles of approval from the whole family. A delicious combination of luscious Bing cherries, cherry-flavored gelatin and cola beverage, it's a perfect choice for holiday menus. You'll find it easy to make, too, with the family size fruit-flavored gelatin.

Cherry Bounce

1 can (1 pound 14 ounces) pitted Bing cherries
1 cup boiling water
1 family size package (6 ounces) cherry-flavored gelatin

1 ½ cups (two 6-ounce bottles) cola

Drain cherries, measuring juice. (If necessary, add enough water to cherry juice to equal 1 ½ cups.) Combine with 1 cup water and bring to a boil. Remove from heat. Add gelatin, stirring until it is dissolved. Cool slightly; then add cola. Chill until slightly thickened. Then fold in cherries. Pour into a 1 ½ quart mold and chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with cream cheese balls which have been rolled in chopped nuts, if desired. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Annual Cardinal's Christmas Party Scheduled Dec. 11

Invitations are now in the mail for the annual Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children, to be held this year in the Beverly Hilton Hotel International Room on Sunday, Dec. 11, from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

The party is one of the most worthy of the entire year and is the only social event personally sponsored by His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre.

The cardinal's committee welcomes patrons and patronesses to assist their worthy and extensive program. Donations can be sent to the Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children, 855 S. Figueroa St., Los Angeles 17.

Those wishing to secure invitations may do so by calling Miss Catherine Honrath, Madison 3-7181. The donation is $10 for adults, $5 for

Quick 'N' Easy Sundae Sauce

Like to dress up ice cream for festive occasions, and sundaes, common as they are today, still seem like a party dessert. Here's a delicious "Fruit Sauce" you can make quickly with canned fruit cocktail.

Drain the syrup from a 1 lb. 14 oz. can of fruit cocktail into sauce pan; heat. Blend ¼ cup sugar, 2 teaspoons cornstarch and ¼ teaspoon salt; stir into hot syrup, cook and stir until mixture boils, is clear and thickened. Remove from heat and stir in 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ¼ cup light rum (or 1 teaspoon rum extract) and 1 tablespoon grenadine syrup (or use a drop or two of red food coloring instead of grenadine.) Add drained fruit cocktail. Chill thoroughly. Serve over vanilla ice cream. Makes about 3 ½ cups sauce.

children. Tickets also will be available at the entrance on the afternoon of the party.

Before Theater Cocktail Party

Roarin' Twenties had full sway when several couples gathered for cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Borner, 26218 De Los Drive, last Saturday evening.

Meeting at the Borners before attending the Junior Woman's Club production, "Behind the Footlights," were Messers and Mesdames Don Carlson, Harold Brunner, Jack Hertel and Bob Martin from Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. William Kile of La Canada also joined in the fun.

Most of the women attended the cocktails party and the play at the Eagles Hall in Redondo as "flapper girls."
